

CCA Lower Columbia Chapter Presents: Protecting Streamflow & Fish Habitat

with Nick Manning (Center for Environmental Law & Policy)

WHEN: Thursday, November 8 @ 6:30pm

WHERE: The Carriage Restaurant

1334 12th Avenue, Longview

Join us for our Chapter meeting at the Carriage Restaurant in Longview. Nick Manning from the organization CELP (Center for Environmental Law and Policy) will give a presentation on protecting streamflow and fish habitat in SW Washington. He will be specifically discussing these efforts on the Cowlitz, Lewis, Grays, and Elochoman rivers. Please bring questions and a friend or two!

Food & drink are available.

All are welcome to attend.
